Leaving a gift
in your will is easier than you might think

The promise of a healthier world for future generations starts with you.

You can make a difference by leaving a gift to the Lamèque Hospital and CHC Foundation your will while still taking care of the ones you love. Every gift has the potential to make a difference, no matter how large or small.

Planned giving offers you a variety of opportunities to make a lasting contribution to the future of patient care at the Lamèque Hospital and Community Health Center. When you choose to leave a planned gift to the Lamèque Hospital and CHC Foundation, you are supporting quality patient care and inspiring hope for future patients while also realizing special tax benefits. A bequest in support of health care is a gift to the entire community.

Various opportunities are available as options for you to leave your legacy, including:

- ➔ A bequest in your will (for a specific amount or portion of your estate)
- ➔ Donating stocks and other securities
- ➔ Life insurance
(Naming the Lamèque Hospital and CHC Foundation as the beneficiary)

Your donation may be made outright, thereby providing vital funds for immediate use, or it may be planned now for receipt by the Lamèque Hospital and CHC Foundation at a future date. Your legacy gift can also provide substantial tax savings for your estate. We recommend that you seek professional legal, estate planning or financial advice to assist you in making a planned gift that matches your philanthropic interests.

The benefit of planned giving is that your income today is not affected but you know that your generosity will have a lasting impact on the future for many people.

We are here to help with your planned giving questions; however, the Lamèque Hospital and CHC Foundation does not presume to offer legal or financial advice.
